Barstow Junior High School
Student of the Month

March 2016

Student: Kamryn A. Rowan
Grade: 8th Grade
Age: 13 years

Nomination Selection: Kamryn A. Rowan was nominated and elected as Student of the Month for March 2016 at Barstow Junior High School. Kamryn has a 3.5 GPA currently and participates in our school yearbook. Her yearbook teacher Ms. May states: “Kamryn is a dedicated student that works hard to do her best on every task that is given to her. She goes above and beyond, volunteering to help both students and staff. She is helpful to all students, especially those that are likely to need extra help.” Kamryn does amazing things both in and out of school. Kamryn has qualities of a true Hawk student and has demonstrated dedication to her school work by staying focus and being true to herself. Kamryn is also involved with her church by helping out with the Salvation Army, the Veteran’s Home and preparing special care baskets for needy families. She strongly believes that each family should devoted one day a week for Family night. Kamryn would like to attend college after high school graduation and pursue a career as a Veterinarian. Kamryn’s role model is her aunt Jo for her dedication to college studies yet still making the time for family. Kamryn’s favorite food is New Orleans’s pastries and her favorite movie is the Sound of Music who truly appreciates classics. Kamryn’s favorite quote is: “Shoot for the moon, even if you miss, you’ll land among the stars.” By Les Brown~
